P.C.C. Update

The PCC met on 12th April 2021 where the following were discussed:

Silent Statue Silhouette:

Following confirmation of availability and faculty permission a Silent Soldier silhouette will be placed in Hampreston churchyard.

Damaged Sign:

Planning permission has been sought to replace the damaged sign at the Hampreston crossroads with a new, red sign with white writing.

Church Heating Project:

The new radiators are now installed however, there is a delay with the delivery of the new boiler. This is being constantly chased and monitored!

Post COVID-19 Plans:

April and May return to two joint 'meeting together' morning services at St. Mary's Church containing a repeated content at 9am and 10.30am. This will allow for the heating project to continue.

Sunday 23rd May is Pentecost, and it is hoped, again, to have an Open-Air Service at St. Mary's Church to celebrate together.

The Beacon Café at St. Mary's Church is now open and providing outside seating in line with COVID guidance. We will also be offering a 'listening table' for members of the community who might want to talk, particularly with regard to their experiences during the pandemic. (If you would like to be involved in this, please contact Sarah Pix for more information.)

PCC discussed what, as a fellowship, we might do to reach out into our community as a sign of hope, showing God's love and generosity. Sarah Pix said that one example was the thank you hamper that we had put together for the staff at Hampreston First School.

Arrangements for Curates arrival:

The new Curate, Oli Fricker, and his family will be joining us in early June and it has been agreed with the diocese that they will live in the Hampreston Church Vicarage at Canford Bottom.

Oli's ordination will take place on 27th June at Salisbury Cathedral. Sarah Pix feels given current COVID restrictions it is likely there will be some form of video link and expects to have more information after their meeting at the end of May. It is hoped that we may be able to host a benefice celebration in the grounds of St. Mary's Church following the ordination.

APCM:

As we are still restricted with numbers due to COVID Sarah Pix proposed that this year's APCM be via video conference (zoom). Anyone interested in joining PCC this year should contact Sarah.

The date of the APCM will be Tuesday 25th May 2021 at 7.30pm.
