UNITED We stand

Sermon Series: Summer Term 2024 - The Book of 1 Corinthians

Church is a people with purpose ...

But what does it mean to be fully united in the purpose that Jesus give us, and how do we do that here at All Saints and St. Mary's?

The book of 1 Corinthians is a letter from Paul to a church that he started which addresses several difficult topics, a variety of concerns, and with contrasting views and expectations which was causing division. This is most likely one of at least four letters that Paul wrote (we have two of them as part of Scripture). It lays down principles, and instructions that can be applied to every local expression of church. At its heart is a call for them to stand united for Jesus: God's church, God's way.

The hope for this series is to be more than a general Bible Study of what we can learn from the book of 1 Corinthians. We are deliberately focussing on some parts of the letter more than others (but that doesn't stop you doing your own study on the other parts). Ultimately in this series we are asking the question: What might God want to say at this time to us here at All Saints and St. Mary's as we seek to follow him together?

For This I Have Jesus

For the joys and for the sorrows
The best and worst of times
For this moment, for tomorrow
For all that lies behind
Fears that crowd around me
For the failure of my plans
For the dreams of all I hope to be
The truth of what I am

For the tears that flow in secret
In the broken times
For the moments of elation
Or the troubled mind
For all the disappointments
Or the sting of old regrets
All my prayers and longings
That seem unanswered yet
For the weakness of my body
The burdens of each day
For the nights of doubt and worry
When sleep has fled away
Needing reassurance
And the will to start again
A steely-eyed endurance
The strength to fight and win

For this I have Jesus
For this I have Jesus
For this I have Jesus
I HAVE JESUS!

PRAYERS

Please continue to pray for healing and recovery for Banaf & Dave, Jim & Pauline, Jean Brooman and Sarah Libby, Lucy's mum & Dad and for Jason.

Give thanks for Cathy's mum who has successfully had her hip replacement at the end of February and is recovering well.

Please hold Izzy and Ewan in your prayers as they are getting married on Friday 5th April, please pray for their protection in the days leading up to their wedding and pray that the Lord will bless them mightily as a couple.

Loving Lord, thank You for being our strength when we are weak. Thank you for your promises that speak love and peace into our lives every day. We praise You when life is hard. We praise You when life is happy. We choose to thank You in all that's in-between. You alone deserve to receive glory.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Reading

1 Corinthians 13

If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, b but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonour others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.

Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. For we know in part and we prophesy in part, but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.
