Preaching series February

Living for Heaven: 1 Peter

In AD64 Rome Burned. Nero scapegoated the Christians which led to severe and sustained persecution of the church. Peter, who later was martyred, wrote this letter to strengthen the churches throughout Asia Minor as they faced persecution that was coming or had already come. The letter is a call to keep heaven focussed with our earthly lives. And all the while, the church kept growing.

Sun 2nd Feb - Session 4: Citizens on Earth 1 Peter 2:13-3:12

We belong to God and follow his ways. Yet we are also under earthly rule which does not always seem to make decisions in line with Him. Peter gives us some important principles about living with others for the good of all. How shall we submit to both God and human rule? Peter explains we are to do both 'Fear God, honour the King'.

Sun 9th Feb - Session 5: Heavenly Living in a Broken World

1 Peter 3:13-4:6

Keep doing good and keep focussed on Jesus – even when its hard and when we suffer because of it. We are called to live for God, and when we do so others find it strange and don't like that we join in with their ungodliness. But the end of all things will come. So let us live for God in His strength by the gifts and talents he has given us.

Sun 16th Feb - Session 6: Hope of Heaven 1 Peter 4:7-5:15

Peter writes to strengthen the church in the face of coming persecution. And yet suffering as a Christian is not unusual and can be a mark of the reality of our faith. Leaders are called to serve in humility, and all of us are called to be humble to each other whatever we do. Resist the devil, stand firm, and after a little while Christ calls us home.
