God-Focussed Prayer

Four Great Prayers in the Psalms

From 1-7 September we will be responding to a call for a Global Week of Prayer.

In anticipation of this, over the summer, we will look at four great prayers of the Psalms.

Each of these prayers show us the importance of being God-focused in our prayers in different ways (praising, recommitting, seeking, waiting), and show us different aspects of Gods character and His intimate involvement with each of us.

Lord God,

I offer this month of August, this season of summer, to You. Regardless of what is going on around me, You have given me breath in my lungs and life in my body to live for You. Help me to find ways to celebrate life and the hope I have in You every single day. Open the doors in front of me to walk into Your will. Open my eyes to recognize each opportunity to share Your love and the truth of Your Word with someone who needs it. Each day of this new month, chart me a clear path to be obedient to You and to be used for Your kingdom purposes, no matter how small or seemingly insignificant the work may be. Give me a servant's mindset to see every task in front of me as an opportunity to glorify You so that "whatever I do, in word or deed, I do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through Him to God the Father" (Colossians 3:17)
Amen
